

Let's get moving!!

Natalie from Auckland gets her children out and about on their bikes; this is a favorite with the children. The children practice developing their skills in co ordination and balance as well as taking the occasional risk as they go really fast, all the time gaining more and more confidence.

Olivia

