Dramatic play at Halswell Playgroup

Today at Playgroup we had 'Captain Cook', 'Peter Pan', several 'Police Officers', a 'Road worker', Superman' and a 'Princess'. The children came dressed as a character and based their play around the character they were dressed as. We had the 'Road Worker' directing traffic alongside the 'Police Officer' who was making sure the children listened to the 'Road worker'. 'Captain Hook' and 'Peter Pan' explored the environment in their pirate way and then 'Superman' came to the rescue. At the end we had a beautiful Princess with her sparkle cape.
