

Christmas outing at Parana Park - Hamilton

Date: Tuesday 7th December 2010 at 10am – if it is really wet the venue will change to Lollipops Playland or McDonalds at Frankton.

There is a lot to do at this park; adventure playground, swings, birds and a small pool. I will arrange games, do some face painting, read books and purchase morning tea. So please come and join us for a fun morning. I sure hope to see you there.

RSVP – 23rd November – please let me know numbers attending.

Please bring:

Sunhat, sun block, drink, togs and towel if swimming.

How to get there:

Parana Park is just down from Memorial Park on Memorial Drive, Hamilton.

The closest entrance to the park is about 200 meters from the top of the road by Riro Street (sign also says – To Opoia Rd)
